BABY SALE

There are a great many hungry hearted women who would attend a baby sale if babies were ever offered for sale, because there are a great many wives who love children and have been told by physicians that they can never hope to nurse a child of their own.

Some of these women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of womanly ills have been made happy mothers as a result of the cure of womanly disease and the building up of the general health.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I wrote to you some time ago to get information about my case," says Mrs. Mary Lee Plummer, of Dryden, Va. "I was troubled with female weakness and pain. Received answer from you, advising me to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and found it did me good. I had been married four years and had no children; now I can say that our house is blessed with a little baby boy, born July 10th, by the help of God and your medicine. I praise your medicine highly."

"You can publish this letter if you wish."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

COLD IN HEAD Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying, does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50 cents at druggists or by mail; trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

KODOL

Digests What You Eat.

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that in cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Kodol

Digests What You Eat.

Mrs. Loring Nichols of Penn Yan, N. Y. writes: "After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured."

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders, and gives the heart a full, free and untrammelled action.

Bottles only. $1.00 Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

PREPARED BY E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

TEXT OF OPINION.

The text of the opinion of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Jackson Giles, of Montgomery county, Ala., vs. the Board of Registrars of that county, which was delivered by Justice Holmes last Monday, was made public yesterday.

The opinion says that Giles, a negro male adult, on behalf of himself and 5,000 others similarly situated, sought by bills in equity to secure registration as voters of Montgomery county, which had been refused, and thus test the validity of the suffrage provisions of the new constitution of Alabama.

Justice Holmes says it was alleged by Giles that "the refusal to register the blacks was a part of a general scheme to disfranchise them. The Federal Circuit Court for the Middle District of Alabama dismissed the bill for want of jurisdiction. It was contended, says Justice Holmes, that the federal courts had jurisdiction in equity under sections 629 and 1979 of the Revised Statutes, providing that every person who, under color of a state 'statute, ordinance, regulation, custom or usage, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other persons within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges or immunities secured by the constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit, in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress.'"

The court said that while there might be some objections raised on technical grounds to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and of the jurisdiction in equity, yet the court was of opinion that the appeals open the whole case, and that the scope of the complaint was entitled to consideration. He then proceeds to announce the impossibility of granting the relief sought, saying in explanation:

"It will be observed in the first place that the language of section 1979 does not extend the sphere of equitable jurisdiction in respect of what shall be held an appropriate subject matter for that kind of relief. The words are, 'shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity or other proper proceedings for redress.'"

They allow a suit in equity only when that is the proper proceeding for redress, and they refer to existing standards to determine what is proper proceeding. The traditional limits of proceedings in equity have not embraced a remedy for political wrongs. Remembering, however, the importance of the case, the court has found itself unwilling to stop short of the final consideration to be taken into account in disposing of it.

"The plaintiff alleges that the whole registration scheme of the Alabama constitution is a fraud upon the Constitution of the United States and asks us to declare it void. But, of course, he could not maintain a bill for a mere declaration in the air. He does not try to do so, but asks to be registered as a party under the void instrument. If then we accept the conclusion which it is the chief purpose of the bill to maintain, how can we make the court a party to the unlawful scheme by accepting it and adding another vote to its fraudulent lists?"

"If a white man came here on the same general allegations, admitting his sympathy with the plan, but alleging some special prejudice that had kept him off the list, we hardly should think it necessary to meet him with a reasoned answer. But, the relief cannot be varied because we think that in the future the particular plaintiff is likely to try to overthrow the scheme. It we accept the plaintiff's allegations for the purpose of his case he cannot explain. It seems to us that unless we are prepared to say that it is wrong, that all its principal allegations are immaterial, and that the registration plan of the Alabama constitution is valid we cannot order the plaintiff's name to be registered."

It is not an answer to say that if all the blacks who are qualified according to the letter of the instrument were registered the fraud would be cured. In the first place, there is no probability that any way now is open in which more than a few could be registered; but if all could be, the difficulty could not be overcome. The sections of the constitution concerning registration were illegal in their inception; it would be a new doctrine in constitutional law that the original invalidity could be cured by an administration which defeated their intent. We express no opinion as to the alleged fact of their constitutionality beyond saying that we are not willing to assume that they are valid in the face of the allegations and main object of the bill for the purpose of granting the relief which it was necessary to pray in order that the object should be secured.

The other difficulty is of a different sort, and strikingly reinforces the argument that equity cannot undertake now, any more than it has in the past, to enforce political rights, and also the suggestion that State constitutions were not left unmentioned in paragraph 1979 by accident.

MISS IDA M. SNYDER,

Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

MISS IDA M. SNYDER, of No. 335 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, culture and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:

"I women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for."

"In consulting with my druggist he advised me to use Wine of Cardui and I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Theorin's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
